Two Jailed In L.G. Store Burglary

Lemon Grove Review

Vol. 9; No. 21 — LEMON GROVE, CALIFORNIA — THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 1957 — 10¢ PER COPY

The burglary of the Highlander Men's Store and Marsi's Ladies Apparel Shop Friday night headed for a swift solution with the arrest of two suspects at the Tijuana port of entry late Monday night.

Deputy Sheriff Ernie Sable reported that Robert Ebel, 18, of Barrington, Illinois, and a juvenile boy were stopped and questioned by customs and immigration officers Monday night as they sought reentry into the United States. An inspection of the 1940 Pontiac automobile they occupied led to the discovery of a 42 calibre automatic pistol and a 25 calibre Luger pistol. The customs officers notified the San Diego Sheriff's office and deputies F. Lee and J. L. Scott sped to the scene.

A minute examination of the automobile uncovered several "Highlanders" clothing labels on the floor of the car. Remembering the all points bulletin issued after the Highlander and Marsi burgulary, the deputies took the car and the two young men to the sheriff's office. Deputy Ernie Sable and Lt. Robert Ryan questioned the suspects at length and finally Ebel admitted both burglaries.

Tijuana police and the sheriff's deputies inspected a motel room rnted to th Illinois men in a Tijuana tourist court and found other labels from the stolen Highlander store wearing apparel, and several dollars in silver change.

Ebel admitted that part of the money taken at the Highlander had been spent for the two pistols and for a "good time" in Tijuana. Some of the clothing was recovered.

The juvenile steadfastly refused to admit anything and he was turned over to the Juvenile Hall authorities. Ebel was lodged in county jail.

Ebel turned out to be a pretty large man, tieing in with the fact tha large size articles of clothing were taken from the Highlander store.

Earl Wilson, who discovered the cash register open and looted when he reported for work Saturday morning, said that among the items stolen were size 46 sweaters, size 17 shirts, size 12 sox and shoes, and that the burglar or burglars showed a disdain for smaller sized items. Wilson said that the cash register was open and the petty cash fund had been taken. Manager Ted Skelly said it would be hard to estimate the amount of merchandise taken but that it would amount to several hundred dollars. Cash taken from the register amounted to $195.

A recheck made later by Highlander store personnel disclosed that in addition to items already listed as stolen, 10 mens' suits, 10 belts, a dozen wallets, 3 jackets, and miscellaneous smaller wearables had also been taken.

At Marsi's an inventory of the complete stock was the only means of showing what had been taken from the merchandise standpoint, but it was certain that several dresses and other ladies apparel items had been taken. There was some 30 dollars in the cash register and the thief or thieves helped themselves to that.

Entry was gained through the skylight at the Marsi store and exit apparently made through the same opening. The screen on a back door to the Highlander had been forced open and a wooden dooor forced open by breaking the lock.

No attempt had apparently been made to enter the skylight of the adjacent United States Naional Bank building.

Deputy Sheriffs Lyle Tichner and John Bell answered the first call after discovery of the burglary, and sheriff's department laboratory technician Roy Williams brought out the identification car from sheriff's headquarters, and scoured both stores for fingerprints. Prints were secured, but whether or not they are prints left by a burglar remains to be discovered.

Both establishments are covered by insurance against burglary losses.

At press time funeral arrangements are pending.

Taxpayers Group May Supplant Men's Club Talk With Action Says Cannizzaro

Men's Club president Joseph Cannizzaro Friday threatened the formation of a taxpayers' group to replace the club's conversation with immediate action.

He said government at all levels was spending tax money too freely and doing it with a "taxpayer be damned" attitude.

The club met without a program and fell to discussing a proposed county branch library-community center for Lemon Grove. H. A. Anderson said that he had not heard any prior mention made of a community center.

Luther Hussey questioned the report of the present Youth Center being demolished.

Frank Gigliotti said taxing and spending was becoming a "national cancer". He said taxing bodies must learn to use the facilities already available. He recommended wider use of school playgrounds for recreation programs.

Franchy Faucher said the Swimming Pool Association, which he heads, plans a $60,000 pool on its 6.2 acre site at Washington and Mt. Vernon. He said his personal opinion is that two parks, one for each side of town and with a smaller pool on each, would reduce the traffic hazard for youngsters. He said that money for the project is being raised too slowly and said incorporation or annexation would supply the financial machinery for getting the project finished.

Luther Hussey complained that no further discussion had been held on a Men's Club talk made by Thomas W. Fletcher, assistant to the City Manager of San Diego. Hussey said that it appeared Fletcher had offered, via annexation to the city of San Diego, all the things the Men's Club said they were striving for.

A member of the county public works department will be invited to speak at this week's meeting which will be held Friday at noon at Michael's.

WASHINGTON SUMMARY
by ED KOTERBA

IKE TO HAWAII? There is increasing talk that the President will fly to Hawaii ostensibly "on business," but actually for a rest on orders of his doctors.

No direct denial of the reports has come from the White House.

It is conceded that the President will undergo the most strenuous weekend. . .

THE FIRST BILL. Significantly the first bill introduced in the House of Representatives (by Rep. Augustine B. Kelley of Pa.) in the 85th Congress was for financial aid to schools.

The school question will be one of the hottest issues this spring, legislators say. Kelley, a Democrat, asks for $3.6 billion for school construction. The Republicans are expected to ask for about half that.

RACE ISSUE. An explosion is in the offing when the House of Representatives takes up the Negro problem in District of Columbia schools. . .

A subcommittee recently produced a report showing that the mixing of races in schools here has brought on a "serious sex problem".

A demand will be made to Congress to return segregated schools to Washington.

NOT A QUITTER. Ailing Sen. Matthew Neely, the once-vitriolic Bible-quoting senator from W. Va. who appeared on the Senate's opening day in a wheel chair, will NOT resign. . . The resignation was proposed by his colleagues.

In fact, Neely told this writer he will run for reelection in 1960.

CHANGE IN VETOES. Several amendments to the Constitution will be proposed this session of Congress. . . Said to be one of the most practical is the provision of Rep. Kenneth Keating, New York Republican, asking that the President be given authority to veto specific items in appropriations bills without having to veto the entire bill.

Heretofore, many much-needed laws have been tossed out by Presidents because of one or two little "pork-barrel" items.

NO STATEHOOD. Despite the dramatization of Alaskan delegates to Congress (they made a trip here before opening day), there will be no statehood voted for the region this year, according to the word of several congressmen. Neither will statehood be proclaimed for Hawaii.

MISCELLANY. The "scare" talk about gasoline going up substantially in price is unfounded. Experts here say off the record that if anything, the price will go down. Overabundance.

Farm note: The Department of Agriculture reports that use of honey is increasing in bakeries. Before long, it's pointed out, most of the baked goods you buy may contain no sugar—just honey.

Congress may again investigate "unjust" news print increases, most recent of which (a $4 a ton jump) raised the price to $134 a ton.

ENGINEERS TALLY RAIN BENEFITS

Benefits from the continuing rainstorm were beginning to pile up with a run-off reported at Cuyamaca Lake where Helix Irrigation District Engineers clocked a rainfall of 4.38 inches.

Irrigation district engineer Tom Keith said the following fall had been recorded: Administration office, La Mesa, 2.18 inches; El Monte, 2.30; Murray Lake Reservoir, 2.87. The figures are those accumulative as of Tuesday morning.

Out at 7040 Mt. Vernon in Lemon Grove, unofficial weather observer A. S. Terhar had recorded a total fall of 1.75 inches, also as of Tuesday morning. He felt at that time the rainstorm would continue through today, Thursday.

Vincenz, Director of the Department of County Public Works, informs us that this office will be open from 8 a.m. to 12 noon, Mondays thru Fridays, beginning this week. Louis Wernick will be in charge.

Wernick has been with the County Building Inspection Division for a number of years. He is familiar with all code requirements and with builder's problems. Applicants for permits will find Mr. Wernick very capable in assisting them with their problems. All types of buliding, electrical, and plumbing permits will be issued at this office with the exception of permits for commercial buildings.

This office will serve all areas in the Eastern part of the County having highway access to El Cajon, also from the North to Ramona, and on the West the La Mesa, Spring Valley, Lemon Grove areas.

Thirty-one Typewriters Stolen From Helix -- 14 Recovered

A bunch of the Helix High School business course students got a vacation from their typing classes Monday morning when they reported to the typing classroom completely barren of typewriters.

Sometime Sunday night burgulars broke a window in that classroom to gain entrance, then calmly carted away through the door 31 typewriters valued at $4,500.

Meanwhile, in the early morning hours of Monday, sharp eyed Highway Patrol officers Earl Voiles and C. R. Austin, cruising in the vicnity of Brier Way and U. S. Highway 1, just north of the Tijuana port of entry noticed a car parked off the road and two shadowy figures working with an automobile trying to get it started. Voiles and Austin investigated and found the suspicious car loaded with 14 typewriters.

BULLETIN — At press time, Helix High School principle advised the REVIEW that all of the typewriters had been recovered by a suspect's confession. Seventeen machines had been found concealed in some brush.

Questioning of the two men by patrolmen brought an admission that the typewriters were part of the Helix High School loot, and the two men, Robert W. Miller, and B. W. Grise, both 26 years old, and admitting no address, were apparently headed for the Mexican city.

The automobile, the typewriters, and the two men were turned over to the sheriff's department and La Mesa police were to question them later in the week about the Helix burgulary, and a similar theft several weeks ago at the Chula Vista High School.

Benton Hart, Helix High School principal, said that he hoped that the rest of the typewriters could be found after the suspects had been questioned at length, because insurance on such educational equipment items is prohibitive and no insurance is carried by Helix High School or any other high school on such equipment.

Hart said that inquiry had developed that when the custodial officer had made his rounds about eight o'clock Sunday night everything had been in order, so that took place sometime after his the entry and theft evidently took place sometime after his last rounds.

THINGS DOIN' & BREWIN'
About Civic Center

Board of supervisors met for the last time in 1956 on December 31. No reference was made to the fact that 1956 was definitely a thing of the past, nor were any farewells said to Supervisor James Robbins, who explained that he will vacate his official seat on January 7, when his successor, recently elected R. M. Dent, will sit at the table where James has sat for three terms. Jim deciding that he had had enough of official life.

Matters set for hearing and appearances started the list of five at 11 o'clock with Resolution of Intention to annex unincorporated territory to San Ysidro Sanitation District, requested by Harold Gross and Winnifred Gross. Balloon Sales, Coffee Parties Spur March of Dimes Donations

Citizens of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area took a deep breath collectively this week and plunged into the business of staging a March of Dimes Campaign under the general chairmanship of William Paul of the United States National Bank.

First event to get underway officially will be a Balloon Sale, staged by the Teen Club Friday afternoon and all-day Saturday. Inflated balloons appropriately labeled and advertising the March of Dimes will be sold on the street by some thirty members of that teen age club. Robert Sutton, president of the group and his co-workers have everything in readiness for the street sales. The Lemon Grove Fire Department personnel will inflate the balloons as they are needed.

Paul said that extensive preparations are underway for the March of Dimes Coffeet Party which will be staged in this area as well as the whole county on Tuesday Morning, January 15th, between 10.00 a.m. and 10:30. During the half hour period Television Channel 10 will screen a special March of Dimes program.

Housewives of the area are asked to prepare a pot of coffee and invite several neighbors to view this program. These small gatherings of two to six or seven ladies, or men for that matter, can view the program, drink coffee and take up their Coffee Club collections with the proceeds to be turned over to Paul to be in turn channelled into the March of Dimes fund. Paul said that it is hoped that through these small household gatherings many dollars can be donated to further polio reseatch, vaccine innoculations, and treatment.

Additional events are being prepared such as a dance, various service club participation stunts, school and church participation, and the Mothers March late in the month.

Paul invites cooperation and suggestions about ways and means to make sure that Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will do ly accepted und raising campaign its share in this popular and widely accepted fund raising campaign.

The Dimmer VIEW
By MAX GOODWIN

I've been as guilty as most in viewing teachers at our schools through dollar mark windows, but I've been wrong.

School tax is the highest item on the county tax bill, accounting for more than half of the total. When we think of cost of schools we think of teachers and a natural rationalization follows. If taxes are high we tell ourselves it is, because 1.) we are paying our teachers too much; 2.) we are paying too many teachers.

Teachers are neither overpaid nor too many! In the pay category our district pays teachers $4,000 a year to start. In Los Angeles County other professionally prepared employes do better. Chemists average $5,600; Safety Engineers, $5,820; Accountants, $5,700 and architects, $7,065. There are 100,000 credentially capable teachers in California who do not teach because of the low pay rate.

There are not too many teachers, either. I've attended Mrs. Trimmer's class at San Miguel School because I have a vested interest there. An offspring of mine attends the class. Mrs. Trimmer, as do most good teachers, separates her class into sections, keeping two-thirds studying while she supervises the rest. Perhaps three teachers for this class would be too many, but I think perhaps 1½-2 would not give students too mucs personal attention.

These thoughts were provoked by a piece I read in a magazine published by the San Diego Federal Bank written by Ginney Romer. She gave me this article the title of "What Is A Teacher?" then answered her own question thusly:

"Between the ages of six and eighteen, our children . . . our most precious possessions . . . are blithely entrusted to a teacher. But what is a teacher?

"Webster's definition is one whose profession is to instruct. To instruct implies imparting knowledge, but important knowledge is a small part of what a teacher does.

"Ask a teacher what she does, and she'l probably say, "I teach English, or History or Math." She is too modest to say, "I train men." However, the future of our civilization lies in the hands of the teacher. She is the one who draws out in us our latent or hidden talents. She is the one who holds aloft the torch of Truth and adds new knowledge as the fuel. She is the one who educates us . . . not just for quizzes . . . but for coping with life.

"Yet, regardless of her role of guardian of the rights of generations yet unborn, too few parents consider the teacher as a normal human being with needs and desires such as their own. They take for granted that the teacher will be good, kind and trustworthy . . . yet they seldom realize that many teachers must make true sacrifices to remain teachers. A teacher is expected to maintain a reasonable standard of living and dress becomingly on a salary that is seldom sufficient.

"The teacher is cast in the role of "baby-sitter" and relegated the task of imparting knowledge, manners and morals in overcrowded classrooms. She is called upon to be an arbitrator, a referee, a confidant and a conferee. If she is a strict disciplinarian, she is old-fashioned in her methods. If she allows the children some measures of expression, then she is too progressive. In six short hours, she is expected to teach not only the three R's, but also all the things that parents neglect to teach at home. She is supposed to impart respect for the rights of others and a sense of fair play and good sportsmanship in children of parents who brag they were able to "fix" their ticket for a traffic violation.

"What is a teacher? She's a devil, a demon who rides at their heels," or a "saint, an angel who wipes away their tears." So here's to the teacher . . . a poorly-paid heroine . . . who loves your children so much that her

County Water Nabobs Urge Second Aqueduct

Construction of a second San Diego Aqueduct is being studied by directors of the County Water Authority, who met with two San Diego legislators recently to consider the proposal.

The legislators were Assemblyman Frank Luckel and Assemblyman George Crawford, both Republicans, if that makes any difference. Even a Democrat has occasional need for water, at least for domestic purposes.

A majority of the authority directors urge that the second line be built by the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California and by the authority to bring additional water from the Colorado River. The authority would seek approval of a bond issue to finance its share of the pipeline.

The directors also met with Senator Fred Kraft and Assemblyman Jack Schrade (from El Cajon), both Republicans, and Assemblyman Hegland, Democrat, from La Mesa.

The bank stations handle renewals for all types of motor vehicles and trailers, except motorcycles.

DEER TAKE TALLIED

Department of fish and game announces that 108,452 deer were taken by hunters this season in California. That looks like an impressive figure, but some states exceed that number by far. Some Lemon Grove deer hunters have to leave California and drive 1100 miles each way to get their share of three deer, and pay $45 for a license, making each victim of their rifles cost $15, which they say is pretty cheap meat for the freezer.—D. Rain-Hunting Supervisors, Sparked By Bird, Vote Coin For Cloud Seeding Program

The board of supervisors will contribute one-third of the cost of a proposed cloud-seeding program in the county during the first four months of 1957.

Supervisor Dave Bird made the motion to participate in the program, said the county would contribute up to $10,000 for the work. The City of San Diego will contribute the same amount.

The other incorporated cities of the county, public and private utilities and water agencies will be asked to contribute one-third of the estimated cost of $30,000.

Paul Beermann, city water director, said the cloud-seeding program will be supervised by S. D. County Weather Corp. of Escondido. The weather corportion is a private company set up by various private and public groups in 1950 to study and conduct cloud seeding.

The cloud-seeding program, using silver iodide vapor, is designed to extract more rainfall from storms passing over San Diego county. Beermann told the board that "We have concluded that in at least one of five years the program was used here we got increased rainfall." He said one good storm would pay for the cost of the seeding program.

The weather corporation did not use cloud-seeding last season. A general county-wide drought has been cited as making emergency measures necessary.

Pheasants Stolen

Twelve pheasants were stolen Sunday from the San Diego Game Breeders Associations "corral" at Barona Indian Reservation, at the head of Wild Cat Canyon, as reported by El Cajon sheriff's office. Deputies said six heads of birds were found in the pens.

It's always somethin'. Either the coyotes get 'em, or a hawk glides in and out, grabbing a bird on the fly—the hawk, that is. A pheasant in a pen can't get up speed quickly enough, but they can go fast when they get a good start. The boys say the pheasants just explode and whirr away. They are worth six bucks apiece when brought to the check-in stand.

No trace of the other six heads has been found.—D. H.

Highlander Bottini, Dunn Take Top Gridiron Honors

Helix's all-Metro 200-pound tackle Roy Bottini was recently bestowed the highest award given to a San Diego city or county prep gridder by the Helms All-Southern California Board of Football. Rugged Roy was the only pigskin player from this area to be named on the first team of the All-Southern California high school football squad.

Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bottoni, 2885 Cypress, Lemon Grove, was picked for the guard position.

Another Highlander, Metro League "Player of the Year" Gary Dunn, was named as third team halfback. Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Coye Dunn, 1707 Skyline Drive, Monterey Heights. The only other prepster to be named on one of the three teams was San Diego High School center Ron Collins who made the second team. Hoover High School who best Helix in the first round of the SCIF playoffs didn't land anyone.

Halfbacks Randy Meadows of Downey and Mickey Flynn of Anaheim were named co-players of the year. Both fellows averaged 16 yards per carry this season. Meadows scored 196 points in 13 tilts and Flynn tallied 122 digits in 10 games. The two teams tied in the final SCIF game, 13-13.—B.T.

On The SIDELINES with Bob Turnbull

Hi there! Bob Turnbull's the name and yours truly has recently been promoted, happily I may add, to a new department for our ever growing weeklies, Spring Valley BULLETIN and Lemon Grove REVIEW. A regular weekly sports section can be found in every issue dedicated mainly to the local homefront and their athletic events.

We'll cover the schools that affect our areas, like Helix and Grossmont High Schools, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Junior High Schools, and in September we'll have our own high school, Mt. Miguel. You have your college athletic battles to cover at San Diego State College, Cal Western, San Diego Junior College and the San Diego University where many player's are ex-Grossmonters and Highlanders, or many just live locally. Of course you can't forget just plain John Public. Could be that a Lemon Grove man broke a golf record at a nearby country club or say that a Spring Valley woman snagged a record breaking barracuda off La Jolla shores. All of those are contributions to local sports that certainly help tie the lose ends of a community. Sports display strength, agility as well as ability, sportsmanship and recreation. It is the object of this page to share these results with you, our reader.

Football, basketball, tennis, baseball and track are some of the events we'll report and discuss, as well as archery, horseback riding, fishing and hunting, camping, jai alai, golf, swimming, boxing and wrestling, cross country, gad, you name 'em, we'll cover 'em.

We can do all these, IF we have YOUR cooperation. Our staff is small. Other than my co-worker, Ray Spencer, this is it. And being a weekly newspaper, not daily, don't have the setup of several writers and reporters. We can do only so much, but if you will assist us by showering our office with info or tips on any event or anything concerning local sports or people in sports, we will be most appreciative and in turn can continue a better sports page. Ideas, suggestions, hints and criticisms are welcomed. This is your page. We just do the writing. Thank you and let's hear from you!

Sport Jottings . . . Congrats to Lemon Grove's Ronnie Mulder and Gael Barsotti, Helix forward and center respectively, who were awarded first place berths on the All-Filmore tournament team. Helix copped a third in the central area contest. . . .It's final! Head grid mentor Dr. Paul Governali of the respiriting Aztecs of State College is here to stay. He threw his hat in the ring of seeking the vacant post at Columbia University, his old alma mater. Last week he received his unsoiled hat as the coaching chore fell on the shoulders of Aldo "Bluff" Donelli, head coach at Boston U. And speaking of our local-hero-in-one-year, Dr. Paul has been nominated as the San Diego's Outstanding Young Man of the Year by the College Center Lions Club.

Oh well, one victory out of 11 attempts isn't really too bad considering the idiotic setup the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) has thrown, and I do mean thrown, the coast league. Since 1946 the only Rose Bowl game won by a coast representative was So. Cal's 7-0 edge over Wisconsin in '53. Since then, and before, it has been a regular, humiliating slaughter at the hands of the Big Ten gridiron machines. We have good gridders and coaches but the dumbest PCC setup in football history. I honestly believe Californians watched the other three bowl games more than the disgusting (renamed) Toilet Bowl where the coast entry gets flushed thru the soil every year at ridiculous ease, thanks to the ridiculous situation the PCC is keeping us in. Come on, gents, get wise!

JAI ALAI DRAWS BIG

Mexican jai alai, '57 version, got its annual seasonal start last Thursday night at the Fronton Palacio. This popular Tijuana sport, considered by many as the world's "fastest" event, is set for a 204-night schedule for the 1957 contestants.

Thursday thru Sunday nights are the wekly schedules with the former evening being ladie's night when the females are admitted free. Two daily doubles with quiniella every game are the highlights. Also featured is free parking with the games getting. under way at 7:30 p. m Twelve games are on the ladies' night.

Favored to retain the A group crown is Arrasate with Anchia pressing him for the top honors.

SDSC Groaners, Tumblers Face Rough Schedule

Grunter's and groaner's, and twister's and tumblers are more commonly known as wrestlers and gymnasts; and those sportsters at San Diego State College have announced their schedules for the secon semester.

Harry Broadbent is head instructor of the grapplers who are the defending champions of the California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA). They already opened their regular season against Naval Training Center on January 4. Coach Fred Kasch of the gymnasts will make their debut against Long Beach State this week, January 11.

WRESTLING SCHEDULE

GYMNASTIC SCHEDULE

Jan. 11—Long Beach State at SDSC; Feb. 15—Southern Pacific AAU novice meet at L.A.; Feb. 21—L. A. City College at L.A. State at SDSC; Mar. 1—University of Arizona at SDSC; Mar. 2—Southern Pacific AAU junior meet at L.A.; Mar. 23—Occidental and Cal Poly at Occidental; Mar. 30—Southern Pacific AAU invitational at L.A.; Apr. 27—Southern Pacific AAU senior meet at L.A.; and May 3-4—NCAA championships at Chicago.

The amount of noise necessary to upset a topflight tennis player in an important match is equivalent to that produced when a wad of cotton is dropped onto a down.

BARSOTTI PACES HELIX WIN

Senior high school center Gael Barsotti bucketed 20 points last Friday night to lead his Helix High School teammates to a 55-50 victory over the Sweetwater Red Devils. It was the Metro League's inaugural game and the green wave is off to a flying start in the role of favorites.

Helix trailed, 41-39, going into the final quarter but Lemon Grove's jump shot artist scored six of his 20 points in that period to lead the Highlanders out of the dark. The Highlanders amassed a 28-22 lead in the first two periods but gave way in the third stanza when Sweetwater got hot with 19 points. —B.T.

BULLETIN — REVIEW SPORTS Carnival

BY BOB TURNBULL

Any Of You Gals Want To Play Fairsex Softball?

How many girl softball players 13 years to 98 years old are there in Spring Valley and Lemon Grove?

A sponsor has asked us to find out if a first class girls team can be organized here for play in ASA league play.

If you have played softball, girls, or want to learn how, telephone Bob Turnbull, HO 9-3448, list your name, address, age, telephone number and position you prefer to play. If you wish, you may drop a postcard containing that information to the REVIEW.

HIGHLAND SHOOTERS LOSE

Helix High shooters were defeated by the Chula Vista High shooters 1,745 to 1,636 in California Cadet Corps rifle matches a few weeks back. The meet was held at Helix. High scorer for Chula Vista were Jerome Baker, 189 and Luckie Waller, 188.

Aztec Athletic Fund Started With Kick-off Banquet

$40,000 is the desired goal of the San Diego State College Aztec Club, campaign chairman, Dick Grihalva announced recently. A civic dinner to kick off the '57 fund drive of the Aztec Club will take place Monday night, January 14 in the Lafayette Hotel.

That will be the formal launching of a city-county campaign to raise the $40,000, to be used for on-campus jobs and scholarships for the Montezuma athletes.

Grihalva stated that "last year was very successful in the formation of the newly organized club but their long range sights must be raised in order to accomodate all their needs." As far as the football team is concerned, this past season was an obvious improvement over last year's two-wins-eight-loss record. Under new head mentor Dr. Paul Governali and staff the gridders compiled a 4-3-2 record that saw victories over Cal Poly and an upset tie with highly favored San Jose State.

To assist in raising collegiate athletics in San Diego to a level commensurate with the growth of this area is the basic aim of the Aztec Club.

During the time it takes the average relief pitcher to amble onto the mound from the bullpen, his whiskers sprout .0743 of an inch.

USD BAGS 6th

Rudy Rudzinski, Helix's "player of the year" last year, led the University of San Diego Pioneers to their sixth straight victory, last Friday night at Riverside. Rudy copped 20 points while his mates helped blast Cal Baptist, 81-43. Rudzinski, guard, collected nine field goals and a pair of free tosses.

Dragster Coasts To Victory After Engine Explodes

Ed Ottinger won the top eliminator trophy last Sunday at Paradise Mesa drag strip. Piloting his Harley Davidson motorcycle in the trophy race of the final drags of 1956, Ed literally coasted to a close victory after his engine blew up half way through the quarter-mile course.

The Bean Bandit Car Club clocked the top time and missed the track record by only one mile per hour as they hit 147.22 m.p.h. in the standing-start, quarter-mile. Chevrolet won all competition in the 1957 stock car events.

Results:

A-S—Jim Heskett, 84.06; A-MS—John Harveston, 75.12; A-G—Ed Porter, 90.02; A-MSC—Hall-Bratton, 92.74; A-SC—Don La Prade, 95.50; A-F—Road Dusters, 112.98; B-SJRobert Vanght, 82.79; B-MS—Walter Drew, 85.49; B-G—Cords and Docken, 93.14; B-R—Bob Myers, 100.22.

ANGLERS FOLLOW BIG ROCK COD RUN HERE

Fishing is making history during the wintery months in San Diego as the heaviest run of rock cod continues to build. The catches in the first week of 1957 averaged as high as those of the last torrid record-setting week of December.

Rod and reelers (no relation to rock 'n rollers) checked in a high percentage of full limits of red cod and many big salmon grouper. This has been taking place the entire week.

Whales, now in full steam for their annual migration, are easily spotted and traced for great distances by boatloads of photographers and spectators.

Helix's Dunn Wins Star Of The Month Plaque From BAF Group

Gary Dunn, powerful and elusive halfback of the Helix High School Metropolitan League championship football team, has been voted the November Star of the Month plaque award by the Breitbard Athletic Foundation, Managing Director Bill Whitney announced last night.

Dunn was cited by the foundation for the high quality of his all-around play. In addition to scoring 59 points this season, the six-foot, 202-pound halfback was a devastating tackler on defense from a lineback position. He was an excellent punter, a good forward passer, and performed the kickoff and points-after-touchdown kicking duties for his team. On several occasions he substituted as a quarterback in the T-formation, and completed 50% of his tosses. He averaged 45 yards per kick in the punting department. As a defensive halfback, Dunn was effective not only in bringing down ball carriers with smashing tackles, but was a standout in defensing against passes.

Dunn, a senior at Helix High, is the son of Coy Dunn, blocking back on the Howard Jones' teams at USC, 1936 and 1937, and later a player for the Washington Redskins.

KNIGHTS LOSE TO SAILORS

San Diego Junior College collapsed on defense but for just a minute last Friday night, but that was long enough to seal their doom as the NTC quintet scored quickly during the lull and eventually won, 67-61.

High scorers for JC were Allee Nowden, 24, and Bill Tellous, 14.

AZTECS BOW

San Diego State College "played it cool" for the evening. The fact is they were most "cold". Hitting only 30 percent of their shots for the Friday night game they fell victim to the surprising Santa Barbara Gauchos.

The game was played on the foreign court and a nicely staged zone defense and hot shooting spelled our border basketeers the defeat.

Murray Lake Stays Available To Area Fishing Enthusiasts

The Helix Irrigation District Directors this week decided to continue making Murray Lake available to the fisherman of San Diego County throughout the year.

The fishing is limited to 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the present time because of the duck hunting season, which expires Sunday.

But. starting Jan. 9, the lake will be opened for fishing on Sundays, Wednesdays, Saturdays and holidays from 7 a.m. to one-half hour after sunset, according to Byron Miller, general manager of the district.

Miller told the board that in 1955, when the lake was closed to fishing for several months, the district's income from fishing permits amounted to $14,663. Last year the income increased to $18,356 when the lake opened all year.

Many fish have been transplanted into Lake Murray from the Grossmont reservoir, Miller said.

FOOTHILLERS UPSET BY EL CAJON BRAVES

Grossmont High School was completely frustrated Friday night by a full court press instituted by the Braves of El Cajon who snagged a 60-37 upset win. It was the Metro League opener for both squads.

A capacity crowd of these two arch rivals watched the mild upset unfold late in the first period as the Braves' two guards, Joe Klucewich and Bobby Contreras displayed fine pressing and ball snatching. Many a time the hapless Foothillers erratically threw the ball away. Center Gael Halgren of El Cajon took the evenings scoring honor with 21 points. Earlier in the season Grossmont had romped over their opponents, 58-40. It is generally speculated around the coaching circles that both Grossmont and El Cajon are cellar battlers. —B.T.

Newcomers Club Grows at a Fast, Consistent Pace

The "Newcomers' Club" is rapidly enlarging its membership. Even approach of Christmas failed to halt the steady flow of newcomers to Lemon Grove and environs. Following is a summary of new arrivals since December 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Schuff, 3825 Costabella, are from Jamestown, North Dakota. Schuff is engineer at La Mesa City Hall. The couple have three children, two boys and one girl who add to Lemon Grove's school attendance record. The REVIEW comes to them each week to keep them informed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rulluff, 8800 Country Club Drive, Spring Valley, have broken the record for quick purchase of a home. They bought a place at once on arrival, had owned it two days when a reporter called to welcome them to Our Valley. Rulluff is in the Navy. They have two boys, 14 and 10 years of age, and a daughter of two years. They came here from Bakersfield, where 419 Loyd St. was their habitat. Welcome aboard, folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Eister, 7070 Masschusetts Ave., Lemon Grove, came from Lavelle, Pa. Eister is employed at Convair, drives a '52 Chevy, and listens longingly to the siren song about '57 models of that make. (I betcha they get him before next Christmast. The REVIEW will be delivered weekly, meantime.)

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Long, Fairway, La Mesa, formerly residing on Sweetwater Road, bought their home about two months ago. The Longs have two boys, nine and four years young.

Mr. and Mrs. Paxton, 7070 Ave., Lemon Grove, former residents of La Mesa, are renting a home at present. Paxton is a printer. (It seems we have missed the name of the street in the address. Have to do better'n that, Susan.

Paxton works for Neyenesch, old time S. D. printers. Please send in the street name, so we can send you the REVIEW, you type sticker.

Mrs. Damia Berry, a widow, formerly a resident of National City, has owned the home at 7785 Palm St., for about a week. Her daugher is married and subscribes to the REVIEW, which Mrs. Berry reads for free. Mrs. Berry has ordered a phone, and you can call her up pretty soon, 'cause those phone installers are fast workers after they get the order from the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jorgensen, newcomers from Ellsburg, Washington, are in the new home they purchased three weeks ago, at 2545 Buena Vista. Jorgensen has retired from business. They have a daughter 18 years of age, have applied for a phone, which we opine will be busy most of the time after the boys get off work. Sure, they have subscribed to the REVIEW.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burchfield have owned the home at 10300 Ramona, Spring Valley, for about three months, have one boy, Jerry, nine years old. The family moved here from 4051 Mesa Blvd., Clairmont. Their phone number is HO 3-2714. Burchfield works at Convair, drives a '54 Chevy, and the family attends the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Grellson have moved into their recently purchased home at 10455 Don Pico, Spring Valley. They moved from 10311 Loma Rancho, not caring to leave Our Valley. Their '54 Chevy knows all the roads, can almost come home alone. Phone HO 3-2190, unless you see them at the Baptist Church next Sunday. They have subscribed to the BULLETIN, so Tommy will be around or phone to find out how they like their new location.

We gladly welcome the newcomers, and to those who have lived here and merely changed locations, we extend the glad hand of fellowship.—D. H. er of 96.5 per cent of the total acreage requested for inclusion and of 97.7 per cent of the assessed valuation of said area. (Approval recommended by Spring Valley Fire Protection District.) Incidentally, Andy Doyle's foot slipped when he sponsored this petition. Had he been content to leave the property out of the district, it would have given the same protection, besides a little tax money. Too bad, Andy.

Another hearing at 11:15 concerned the approval of a $54,000 road building contract, for a two-mile stretch of road to connect Highway 395 with Del Dios Road at Lake Hodges.

The vote on two measures affecting the road contract was split, with Austin, Howell and Robbins voting "Aye" and Bird and Gibson "No."

Low bidder on the contract was the Harry D. Hicks Construction Co. of Sherman Oaks, Calif., who were awarded the contract on their bid of $54,061.60.

The road will extend Felicita Road, near Felicita Park, to Del Dios Road, which connects Escondido with coastal areas. (A scenic drive, by the way, and well worth taking. Going west, the road skirts Lake Hodges below the dam, continues down the scenic canyon to the ocean.)

After the board's action, Supervisor Robbins, through his attorney, Harvey A. Atherton, announced that he had sold his interest in a 40-acre tract through which the new road will run. The sale, recorded Nov. 26, was to James Slater, a former county employe who had owned the property jointly with Robbins. Tax stamps on the deed indicated the total price was $16,400.

(Reference 12-11-56, No. 50.) That's good news for Spring Valley. Remember we told y'all about it a couple of weeks ago?

Throwin' The Bull

By Bob Turnbull

It's a Joke, Son! . . . Now I set me down to study, I pray the Lord I don't go nutty; if and when I learn this junk, I pray the Lord that I don't flunk. Now I lay me down to rest, thinking of tomorrow's test; and if I die 'fore I awake—at least the test I don't have to take.

Personals! . . . To B-Lu: This week! Are the stars in my eyes? Signed, Poco. . . . To L and W Wi: Welcome home. . . . To P.T. and Bo: Thanks again for the card. . . . . To Ma and Ju Fi: Crazy letter was most cool from some fine chicks. Dig?
—BT—

Local Gossip! . . . . Welcome home is the by-word at 8657 Tyler Street, Spring Valley, where Airman Leonard Williams and wife Wanda are home for the holidays from Hawaii. Little Len is a grad of St. Augustine. . . . Congrats to Charleen Spisak who recently became the bride of John Raser . . . . And God rest the soul of Joan Greene, Rosary High School senior and a good friend of mine, who was killed two weeks ago in a "speeding" auto accident. How true the statement "speed kills" and one never fully realizes it until it takes the life of a friend. Sorta makes you think!
—BT—

For Chicks Only! . . . . A cool winter chore for a more snappy appearance is to complete a solid colored skirt that is decorated with do-it-yourself patterns. All you need are felt scraps, a pattern to your own choosing, pinking shears and various sequins. Let your imagination run wild in of conservative manner . . . For you chicks that bleach the tips of your hair and worry about the sun making your hair yellow, simply put a few drops of silver in your bleach. This tends to cut the yellow and gives your hair a beautiful sheen. . . . Calorie-time! A good party-time snack is cheese snow balls. Served with nuts, raisins or small fruit, these are undoubtedly the quickest treats you can prepare for a quick home gathering. Just roll gum-drop sized balls of cream cheese in shredded coconut. That's all there is to it and they taste 'tuff enuf. . . .And even the felines agree to "leave Dean alone."
—BT—

Dis 'n Dat! . . . . Jottings on shrunken heads, new screen idol and Hungarian relief results.

Many adults are jabbin' the panic button over the new craze of their son's collection of either South American or African rubberized shrunken heads.

They state they feel squeamish around these "grotesque" monsters and call them idiotic. No more silly than 20 years ago when they swallowed goldfish as a fad. Besides I like my "head" dangling from my rear view mirror on my wheels and if some of the oldsters don't like them—don't look! . . . . First it was Gable, then Cooper, Hudson, Curtis, Brando, Dean and Presley and now a U-I matinee idol named Johnny Saxton. 21-year-old Johnny is being groomed as the next screen sensation and somewhat resembles Dean and Presley. He's strictly for the ponytail set, is moody, has the long hair bit and is cool looking. Remember the name of Johnny Saxton! . . . .And a tip of the Ivy-League hat to the Helix Highlanders who scraped up $1,020 for the nation-wide Hungary relief campaign. Scottyland was the first Southern California School to pursue such rewarding adventure.

Stanford Named Acting County Welfare Director

Joy V. Stanford, 62, was named acting county welfare director by the supervisors last Monday, last day of 1956.

Stanford's appointment became effective January 1 and will continue until a permanent welfare director is selected by the supervisors, probably in February.

Stanford succeeds John Mueller, whose resignation became effective December 31.

Supervisor Gibson, acting chairman of county welfare board, said the appointment was necessary because state and federal laws require a welfare director for each county. The welfare board had indicated it would act as interim director for the department while a new director is being selected.

Stanford lives at 4222 Iowa St., has been director for public assistance for the county. He was one of two assistants to Mueller. The other, John Grimsby, resigned recently to accept a welfare post in K. C., Mo.

Stanford entered county service in 1935 on part-time basis, became full-time employe in 1939. He will receive 10% increase in his salary of $647 monthly, according to civil service regulations, or $713.

DeGraff Austin, 61, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, was honeymooning last weekend in Palm Springs with his bride, the former Miss Beatrice Fricker, 46, of San Francisco, where she has been working for the U. S. Treasury Department.

They were married in informal rites Wednesday at 6 p.m., two hours after obtaining a marriage license at the courthouse. Dr. Frank Lowe performed the ceremony in the study of his home, 2555 Fifth Avenue.

Austin's divorce decree from his first wife, Charlotte Lester Austin, became final Monday. They had been married 34 years.

Austin's son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Austin, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Fulkerson, were the only guests at the wedding.

The newlyweds returned to San Diego Monday and will make their home at 3570 Union St. They have known each other for many years, but romance developed within the past year, friends said. The bride formerly lived in La Jolla with her father, now deceased.

A new arrival in the daughter's family is expected any day, lending another outlet for Hesser's activities, and putting the grandson's nose slightly askew for a short time.

Christmas dinner was scheduled to be held with the parents of the son-in-law.

Later the newest arrival was a girl, and Hesser is tickled pink. He has started a bank account for the little lady. Congrats, Grandmaw and Grandpaw.—D.H.

Bill Doughman Has a Heart Attack Scare

William (Bill) Doughman, president of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, was taken to Navy Hospital New Year's Day suffering from what at first was thought to be a heart attack. Doctors at the hospital later diagnosed the case as acute indigestion, according to Mrs. Doughman.

Bill and his wife were dining with neighbors when he suddenly said he had to go home for something. He was gone quite some time. Then the telephone in the neighbor's house rang. Bill asked that his wife come home. She found him quite ill and a doctor was called. The sick man was sent to Navy Hospital in the Spring Valley ambulance.

Mrs. Doughman said last week that Bill had fallen near his yard on the way home from the neighbor's house and called for help, but no one heard him, as most people were either eating or listening to the football game broadcasts. Bill had to practically crawl the rest of the way home. He will probably be in the hospital for several days.

Stork is a Busy Bird . . .

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. (Ronnie and Rosalie) Smith over at 3606 Conrad Drive on the arrival of their first born. A son, named Steven Gilbert, he arrived at Grossmont Hospital Monday, December 17, weighing 6 pounds, 12 ounces.

The new and very proud mother, Rosalie, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hambly of San Diego. Walter is the Watkins dealer for the Spring Valley area. He and his Missis have six grandchildren.

Belated congratulations to Murray and Shirley Tenney over at 3456 Par Drive, Brookside. They are celebrating the arrival of their third daughter, Jane Ellen. The little charmer was born in Mercy Hospital November 16 and weighed in at 9 pounds even.

TUMBLING TUMBLE WEEDS USED AS CHRISTMAS TREE

Mrs. M. F. Keller of Wakarusa St., La Mesa, solved the Christmas tree problem at her home in a novel manner by using tumble weeds. A large weed was hollowed out on top and a smaller weed fitted and a third weed added to the top.

The tree was then decorated with the usual trimming, and a commercial spray gives the illusion of snow. The only thing missing is the familiar piney odor.

Schools Collect Clothing For Needy Children

Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday will climax a drive by Lemon Grove School District Children to collect used articles of clothing for orphaned and needy children. The campaign, ending Friday, said asst. superintendent S. K. Solleder has been part of the World Clothing Week project, in effect in school systems throughout the nation.

Solleder had this to say when announcing the drive; "We expect World Clothing Week to be one of the finest service projects ever conducted by our schools. The clothing collected is used in handicapped areas of America by C.C.F. to help needy children—some of whom can't even attend school regularly because they have no coat or shoes. It goes to orphans and other needy children in the United States and overseas. Also, free clothing and bedding is to be distributed during disaster emergency situations. Every student has been given literature to take home explaining the purpose of the drive and asking the cooperation of parents and friends."

Mr. Solleder continued; "The Christian Children's Fund reports that good used clothing is one of the most vital needs of children and adults the world over. Through World Clothing Week, the school children of Lemon Grove will see to it that many needy boys and girls will be warmly clad this winter. At the same time our own young people will be learning a vtluable lesson in humanity and experience the joy that comes with sharing with those less fortuate. I hope the citizens of our commuity will get behind the schools in this effort. Send all types of wearable infants, children's and adult clothing and shoes to school during World Clothing Week."

Watch For Figure "7" Stamped On Stolen Tool Set

If you see any tools floating around imprinted with the numeral "7", get in touch with Deputy Sheriff Ernie Sable.

Cecil Estrada drove down from Paramount, California to visit some friends of his who live at 2623 Main street, Lemon Grove.

He parked his car in which were two tool boxes, one of green sheet steel, and the other of natural finished wood. The two chests contained, Estrada says, more than $400 worth of wrenches, sockets, flats, and screw drivers which he used to ply his trade as auto mechanic and machinist.

The thief or thieves made off with both boxes, and Sable is hoping that the thief will dare to sell some of the tools, all of which are stamped with the numeral "7".

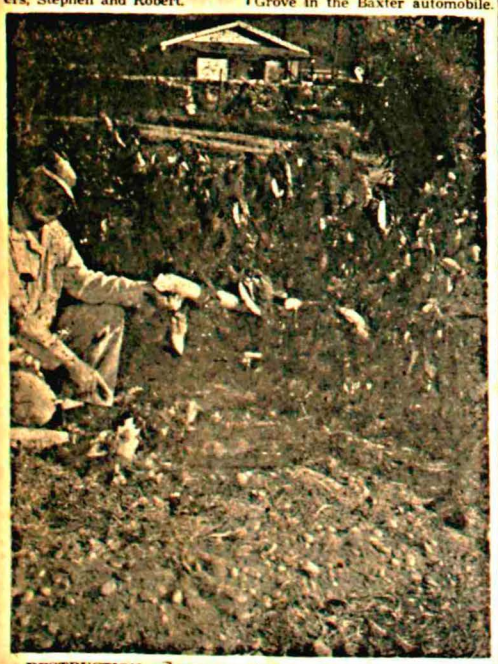
Erwins, Baxters On A Divided Junket

Ordinarily a trip afield is not news, but the way the Roy E. Erwins and the C. Forrest Baxters are doing it is news.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erwin are going to fly up to San Francisco this week (They left Wednesday) and Erwin is going to take care of some business in the Golden Gate city while the Mrs. admittedly is going on a gawking trip which will include window shopping, Chinatown, and Fisherman's wharf.

The Baxters took off in their car the same day for San Jose where Baxter is slated to attend the California Lions Club statewide meet and take care of Lion business.

The four will join up in San Jose and motor back to Lemon Grove in the Baxter automobile.



DESTRUCTION — sums up the view Rudolph Schmidts, 2692 Buena Vista Avenue had of his avocado grove a few days back when he went to tend it. Eight trees which he valued at $4,000 had been wantonly destroyed, nullifying years of patient care and cultivation. Here Schmidts is shown with one of the trees, hacked off a few inches from the ground. The sheriff's department apprehended two small boys who admitted committing the acts of vandalism.

Hospital Level Of Occupancy Remains High

The monthly statistical report for November showed that occupancy continued at a very high percentage, according to Louis N. Peelyon, Grossmont Hospital administrator.

The hospital admitted 539 patients and recorded 2,484 patient days for the month, one of the heaviest months since the hospital opened in August, 1955, he said.

The surgery floor had an 89.4 percent occupancy while the medical and pediatric floor registered a high of 91.7 percent. Peelyon said that hospital efficiency begins to fall off in a surgical ward after the percentage of occupancy exceeds the 77 percent mark.

Eighty-nine babies were born during November, he said.

El Cajon led in the number of patients with 142, followed by La Mesa, 117; San Diego (zones 15-19) 89; San Diego (zones 1-14) 55; Lemon Grove 49; Lakeside 27; Spring Valley 20; Alpine 10 and Santee nine.

Latvian Boy 'Adopted' By Grove Couple

Peter Gaudins

Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Jenkins, 7241 Rosemary Lane, Lemon Grove, are the adopted parents of a displaced person, a Latvian boy named Peteris Gaudins.

Letter from Foster Parents Plan, Inc., international headquarters, New York.

"Home" for Peteris has always been in dreary DP camps. His parents' story is the all too familiar one of misery and insecurity brought about through the war. Both suffered bitterly during the war years and first met in an UNRA camp after the liberation. The father had been deported for forced labor to Germany in 1942, and the mother had fled from Latvia with the advance of the Soviet troops.

After the marriage and birth of Peteris the family (which includes the maternal grandmother) endured the usual transfers from camp to camp, always unsettled and uneasy, but they tried to make the best of things. The father managed to get employment in the camps from time to time. In March, 1950, a second child, Arija, was born, and in June, 1952, another girl, Sarmite.

There was to be no peace for this family, as in late 1952 the father developed TB of the lungs. He was admitted to a sanitarium in 1953 and remained there for about a year. About the same time the mother and Peteris also fell ill with TB and both were hospitalized for six months. Another girl was born to the family in April of this year.

The family exists on a monthly grant from public assistance of $66.35, and live in two rooms and a kitchen, bare and miserably furnished, although kept spotlessly clean. Clothing is inadequate and the bedding is poor. Plan aid will be invaluable for Peteris and your adoption will assure him of better food and decent clothing. He is an alert, responsive boy with blue eyes and blond hair, speaking both Latvian and German. The whole family will benefit through your generous interest towards Peteris and a little hope and encouragement will enter their home."

Foster parent No. 7309, Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Jenkins, 7241 Rosemary Lane, Lemon Grove. Assigned from New York office November 16, 1956.

Peteris Gaudins, born November 18, 1946, Latvian-DP in Germany, No. 16804 Foster Parents Plan, Inc.

Adopting parents agree to pay to Plan $15.00 monthly for at least a year. Letters are translated at both ends of the line. The proposition is strictly on the square, and helps the adopted children to better living, better health.

Lemon Grove has another adopted mother in the person of Miss Joan L. Dailley, 7144 San Miguel Avenue. Miss Dalley is a nurse. She adopted an Italian child April 30, 1956.

Truly, Lemon Grove folks are generous, gladly help those less fortunate.

Note: Adoption is "financial," not legal. Of the $15 received by Plan, the child receives $9.00 each month as an outright cash grant. The remainder is made up of periodic food and new clothing packages.

Further information is freely available on request from Foster Parents Plan, Box 944, New York 8, New York.—D. H.

Assessor Asks Liason Man From Political Units

San Diego County Assessor John McQuilken has solicited the cooperation and advice of all the various political subdivisions of which he is automatically the assessor as well as that officer for the county.

In a general letter mailed to mayors of outlying cities, towns, and villages, school districts, and so on, he asked that each such political entity appoint a liason officer to work with him in assessing problems.

McQuilken said that he thought such cooperation would not only help him in his work, but would acquaint local political units with the complexities of assessment work, and better serve the taxpayers.

At press time appointees to the representative posts had not been made by the bodies concerned, but various boards were expected to act promptly on the assessor's "yelp for help."

TRINITY ASSISTANT MINISTER TO ANSWER CALL TO PASADENA

Grossmont Hospital Births

December births at Grossmont Hospital to December 14 with Lemon Grove and Spring Valley consignees, via Stork Air Express, totaled eight, six girls and two boys making the distribution to various addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Engerbretson, 7825 Ildica, Spring Valley, welcomed a 6 lb., 11 oz. girl on December 6.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Reddrick, 3018 Main Street, Lemon Grove, drew a 6 lb. 10½ oz. boy on December 7.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Baker, 1550 DuPont, Lemon Grove, hung out the "Welcome" sign for a girl weighing 7 lbs. 12½ oz., on December 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boyle, 3026 Main Street, Lemon Grove, were the proud recipients of a future movie star on December 9 when a 7 lb., 12½ oz. precious bundle was left by the stork.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brent, 9226 Lamar, Spring Valley, welcomed a little stranger, not as yet named, a tiny bundle from Heaven weighing 4 lbs. 14 oz., born December 10.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thornton, 3290 N. Jersey, Lemon Grove, were given a 5 lb., 2½ oz. girl, arriving December 12. They think the stork is a grand old bird. So say we all of us.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lavb, 2140 Bonita, Lemon Grove, got a new boy to do the yard work after a while. The "new man" weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz., bids fair to be big and strong and able to handle a power lawn mower. He reported for duty December 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanes, 7811 Nichols, Lemon Grove, welcomed a little girl, weight 8 lbs. 4½ oz. She will help Momma with the housework when she gains a little weight and height. Meantime, she is like the feller who said he started to do the chores on his Dad's ranch before he was a year old. "I done the milkin'," he said.—D. H.

No Immediate Hike In Helix Water Rates Seen; Contract For Chlorination Stations Awarded

The increase in the cost of water on a wholesale basis by the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California will have no immediate reflection in the Spring Valley and Lemon Grove consumers water bills.

So declared Byron Miller, Helix Irrigation District manager when apprised of the increase in cost of water the district distributes. Miller went on to explain that the board of directors of the Helix District will not be obliged to consider water rates until after July 1st. when the Metro price hike becomes effective.

He also said that while the board would consider the rate problem between now and midsummer they were in no position to formulate a policy on rates without considerable study of the impact of the Metro price rise.

In general announcement, the Metropolitan Water Distric said that the cost of Colorado River water would be increased by a figure slightly less than ¾ of a cent per thousand gallons or ½ cent per 100 cubic feet as of July 1st. next. The Metro management says that is the first increase in wholesale rates since 1950.

Principal reason for the hike in wholesale price is the increased cost of electric power used in pumping the water from the river across the mountain barrier. Metro officials also claim that marked increases in operating and maintenance costs have also contributed to the need for and increased wholesale water rate.

The Metro district is now delivering some 500 million gallons of water a day and that ultimate capacity delivery ability of the water pumping system will run around one billion gallons a day.

Miller declined to change his previously expressed belief that the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove area would have water past October first unless it rained heavily during the interim.

"If we do not have any unexpected demands made upon our facilities we can probably supply water to patrons of the Helix Irrigation District system until October 1, but it had better rain, but good before fall."

Miller also commented that the Arrvee Construction Company of San Diego had been awarded the contract to construct two chlorination stations for Helix on its bid of $27,032.20. This contract is the last one to be awarde under the provisions of the $5,230,000 bond issue projects approved by the voters last summer.

tary reward is of secondary importance."

I think in fairness I should add these facts and figures to this piece. It took California 90 years to acquire the first million pupils. The second million came in 13 years in 1953. The third million will come in 1958 . . . after five years.

School authorities claim they need 15,000 new teachers in the state for the coming school year. Only 8,300 are taking teacher training. Since this variance is general across the nation, it appears education, for all of it's subsidies, will soon be as at great a premium in this age on enlightment as it was during the dark ages.
